LONG BEACH NAVAL COMPLEX RESTORATION ADVISORY BOARD

Conditions for Membership:

The Restoration Advisory Board (RAB) for the Long Beach Naval Complex was formed in April 1994 and has been operating as a cohesive group since then. The RAB currently meets on an as needed basis as determined by its co-chairs. The RAB members are expected to attend all meetings regularly and serve a minimum 2 year term. Duties and responsibilities are discussed in the RAB Rules of Operation. The Long Beach Naval Complex includes both the Long Beach Naval Shipyard and the Naval Station Long Beach. RAB members are expected to be available to the community to facilitate the exchange of information and/or concerns between the community and the Department of Defense.
